

Redux Contemporary Art Center in Charleston, SC, Offers Annual Event Featuring Resident Artists and More

Redux Contemporary Art Center in Charleston, SC, is presenting Creative Corridors: Together, on view through Aug. 9, 2025. This group exhibition is an institutional tradition and an opportunity for Redux resident artists to showcase a sample of their work, in relation to a theme.

For 2025 the studio artist selected the theme of “together” to highlight the collaborative nature and spirit of the beloved art community.

Participating artists in Creative Corridors include: Susan Altman, Nancy Perry, Rebecca Dew, Nick Kawczynski, Joe Ridenour, Hale Horstman, Carson Carroll, Taylor Faulkner, Christine Patterson, Lauren Ridenour, Anna Chen, Liz Lantz, Sam Bannon, Melissa Callaway, Jenifer Padilla, Madison Kingery (Mad Made Metals), Kristen Mein (Kaypea Jewelry), Katie Libby, George Read, Kirsten Hoving, Adoni Designs, Susan Vitali, J. Kevin Foltz, Cindy Jesup, Alice Colin, KELA, Chancy Cannon, Katie Brash, Marsha Mc-Donald, Christian Lucena, Jeanette Louise Duncan, Elise Moore and Anne Abueva.

Also on view is the exhibit, Light Changes Everything, a solo exhibition of two innovative photographic series by Redux Studio Artist Christine Patterson. Patterson showcases her infrared hand tinted photographs and her digital & resin board photo collages.

Additionally, Lightning Residents Nysa Hicks-Puig & Maggie Pennington showcase new work created in their joint six-week residency.

Redux Contemporary Art Center (REDUX) is a nonprofit organization committed to fostering creativity and the cultivation of contemporary art through diverse exhibitions, subsidized studio space for visual artists, meaningful education and outreach programs, and a multidisciplinary approach to the dialogue between artists and their audiences

Charleston Artist Guild in Charleston, SC, Features Works by Addelle Sanders and Susanne Frenzel

The Charleston Artist Guild in Charleston, SC, will present Spirit of Time - a Collaboration of Creative Minds, featuring works by Addelle Sanders and Susanne Frenzel, on view from June 1 - 30, 2025. A reception will be held on June 6, from 5-8pm, during the Charleston Gallery Association’s ArtWalk.

As Charleston artists with diverse backgrounds, Sanders and Frenzel collaborated for the first time. They both love color and texture and see this life as a bright journey. Their work stimulates your visual senses and leaves room for a lot of interpretation.

Work by Addelle Sanders & Susanne Frenzel

Born and raised in Brooklyn, NY, Addelle Sanders was employed by the Manhattan Veterans Administration as a CMSW for thirty years. She is a fiber artist who developed her technique in laying colorful silk threads and metallic cords weaved on wood into individual and group figurines working in mixed media specialty in threads. Her art was chosen to be exhibited in the permanent collections of the Schomburg Center in New York. After retirement Sanders pursued her art full time and relocated to Charleston, SC. Her work achieved numerous awards and exhibits in art festivals and private galleries.

Born and raised in Germany, Susanne Frenzel worked as a high school and middle school teacher for 10 years. In 1990, she moved to the United States. Art has always been her passion, especially experimenting with different surfaces, media and techniques. She follows spontaneous perceptions and inspirations to create her abstract paintings and to catch the viewer’s eye. Frenzel’s award-winning work, shown and juried nationally and internationally, can be found in private and public collections throughout Europe and the USA. She also taught German at The Citadel, The Military College of SC, for 10 years.

The gallery is located on East Bay Street, in historic downtown Charleston. Sales made at the gallery support the non-profit Guild’s community outreach work.
